NOTIFICATION.

The rules providing (I) for the care and use of Government cemeteries throughout India, except those in the presidency town of the diocese of Calcutta and the presidency town of the diocese of Bombay; (II) for the levy and expenditure of fees on graves and monuments in cemeteries and churches throughout India; (III) for the levy of other ecclesiastical fees throughout India; (IV) for the erection, repair and endowment of monuments in Government cemeteries throughout India, except in the town and suburbs of Calcutta; and (V) for the regulation of grants for the building of churches; the supply of church furniture; and for the payment of compensation for accommodation provided for soldiers in churches neither belonging to, nor rented by Government, have been revised and consolidated and are published for general information and guidance:—

Part I.

Rules for the care and use of Government cemeteries throughout India, except those in the presidency town of the diocese of Calcutta and the presidency town of the diocese of Bombay.

CHARGE OF THE CEMETERY.

RULE 1.—(1) The resident chaplain of a station has charge of the general cemetery, and frames an estimate of the expenditure connected therewith in accordance with the directions contained in paragraph 1 of the Home Department* Resolution Nos. 6—370-382, dated 9th November 1876.

* Appendix A.

(2) The term "resident chaplain" includes a clergyman of the Additional Clergy Society so far as concerns the stations to which he stands appointed, or other clergyman of the Church of England placed in charge by the Bishop.

(3) Where there are lay trustees or a church committee they will have the same powers and responsibilities in regard to the cemetery as in regard to the church. At stations where there are no trustees or committee, if there is no resident chaplain or during the temporary absence of the chaplain, the charge of the cemetery vests in the chief magistrate on the spot, or the senior military officer if the cemetery is attached to a military cantonment.

(4) At out-stations where there is a church committee the charge of the cemetery will vest in the senior member of the committee, provided that, if the station does not contain a church which is the property of the Government, the appointment of the senior member of the committee to hold charge of the cemetery will be subject to the approval of the Bishop or Archdeacon who may, if he consider it advisable, appoint some other person to the charge. At out-stations where there is no church committee the charge of the cemetery will vest in such person as may
